1. Satisfaction reference must be given, upon application for a Safe.
2. No person other than the Renter, or approved Deputy named in the books of the Company, or legal representative (in case of the death, insolvency, or other disability of the Renter), shall have access to the Safe, excepting as herein-after expressly stipulated. Any such Deputy shall have access to the Safe of the principal and control over its contents, and may renew, terminate or alter the contract of rental, and any and all acts of such Deputy shall be binding on the renter, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, notwithstanding the revocation of the appointment by death or otherwise, until written notice thereof shall be given to the Company at its Home Office.
3. The Renter or proper representative will not be permitted to enter the Vault, unless in the presence of a Vault Clerk; and only two Renters will be allowed therein at the same time, unless the Company, in its option, may see fit to admit more.
4. Upon every entire change of the renting of a Safe the lock will be changed, and on surrender of a Safe the keys must be returned.
5. The cost of replacing a lost key will be paid at once by the Renter.
6. The Company reserves the right to terminate at any time the renting and possession of the Safe, upon notice, mailed to the address (on the books of the Company) of, or otherwise delivered to, the Renter; or, if absent, to the Deputy designated upon the books, or to any other legal representative; and upon the surrender of the keys of the Safe, and the removal of its contents, a proportion of the rent received will be refunded according to the regular schedules of the Company.
7. All rents of Safes are payable in advance. If the Renter of a Safe, at the expiration of any term, or upon an entire termination as above provided, shall not renew such renting, and shall fail to give up possession of the Safe, the Company shall have the right, at the end of fifteen days after mailing notice of its intended action to the address of the Renter, as registered in its books, or after direct service thereof, to forcibly open the Safe of such Renter, in the presence of the President or Secretary and of one other witness, and to remove the contents therefrom, and to hold and retain the same on special deposit, subject to the payment of all rent that may be unpaid, and to charge for the use of the Safe after the ending of the term, proportioned to the annual rent, and of all expense and damage incurred in opening the Safe and changing the lock and keys, and also for the safe keeping of the contents after their removal from the Safe.
8. Boxes must not be opened or papers examined within the Vault, but in the rooms provided for such purpose.
9. Access shall be had to the Vault only from 9 o'clock A. M. to 4:30 o'clock P. M. of each day, excepting Sundays and legal holidays, and excepting that on Saturday the Vault will close at 1 o'clock P. M.
